

I Prayed for You Today

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord that you be blessed, To grant you peace within your heart, and give your mind a needed rest.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to give you health, To give you strength to do your work, and prosper you with Heaven's wealth.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to ease your load, To lift the burdens that you carry, walking down life's narrow road.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to light your way, To send you angels on your journey and guide your steps each passing day.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to keep you safe, And send protection from all evil, as you run life's constant race.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to give you power, To cover you with His own blood, in every minute, every hour.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to give you wisdom, To give you courage in decisions, to push you forward in God's kingdom.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to give you grace, To win your battles with His help, in situations you must face.

I prayed for you today, and asked the Lord to meet your needs, To bring to pass your true desires, that your faith may be increased.

I prayed for you today, and asked for God's most perfect will, To manifest within your life, as His plan is then revealed.

I prayed for you today, for God has placed you on my heart, To touch the Lord on your behalf, whether you are near or far.

I prayed for you today, and know the Lord will answer prayer, You see His promises will stand, for your Savior truly cares.

I prayed for you today, and asked God's love to see you through, And let you feel His holy Presence, as I bow down to pray for you.

And as I pray for you each day, because you mean so much to me, Know that no distance separates us, when we're both down on our knees.

Now as you travel down life's road, as the Lord shows you the way, Take comfort now in knowing, that I prayed for you today.
